

Bosch Plans IP Surveillance Seminars for IFSEC 2008

During the course of IFSEC, Bosch Security Systems will be holding a series of seminar sessions entitled 'Beyond the NVR – a look at the next generation of IP surveillance technologies' given by Dr Bob Banerjee, Product Marketing Manager for IP video products in North America.

During the seminars, Dr. Banerjee will provide his perspective on several topics, including the benefits of open systems; the most effective architectures for typical IP video surveillance installations; and important aspects of the demo, spec and quote cycle for these solutions.

These interactive sessions aim to shed light on the advantages and drawbacks of each type of technology used for digital video recording and the factors to keep in mind when installing or upgrading a surveillance solution.

A seminar will take place on each morning and afternoon of the show on Bosch's stand in the upstairs theatre room. Space is limited to 25 people per session so if you would like to attend please contact Bosch Marketing department on 01895 878095 or email uk.securitysystems@bosch.com.
